

Maria Sadowska, Runaway

Run away now! Run away now!
Run from shaking, taking, breaking, making
You and me.
Run from shaking, taking, breaking, making.
Can't you see?
Run from someone you become and you don't wanna be.

Higher, wanna grow higher,
Wanna be just like the tree with the million green wings,
Feeling free with the wind on my face,
Storm in my mind.
This is my way to survive.

Feel, wanna feel more,
Wanna feel love that is endless and out of control.
'Cause I know that reality bites,
I'm gonna try
Living not just to survive.

Run away now! Run away now!
Run from shaking, taking, breaking, making
You and me.
Run from shaking, taking, breaking, making.
Can't you see?
Run from someone you become and you don't wanna be.

Feel, wanna feel more,
Wanna feel love that is endless and out of control.
'Cause I know that reality bites,
I'm gonna try
Living not just to survive.

Run away now! Run away now! Run away!
You gonna run away, you gonna run away, run away.
I'm gonna run, I'm gonna run, I'm gonna run, run, run.
