

Mariah Carey, With You

With you
With you, you, you
With you, you, you
With you, you, you

(Mustard on that beat, ho)

it was war, can't predict the coming storm
promise that you'll keep me warm
I don't wanna play this role
he said: Yo, I've been loving you so long Every since that Bone Thugs song
you ain't gotta break down you're too strong

shots of Remy
Playing confessions
and our bodies bleeding
I'm in love, it's true damn, I fucks with you
and we all make mistake sometimes but we muddle through
I don't know what I;m supposed to do
I'm in love, it's true
With you
With you, you, you
With you, you, you
With you, you, you

waves were breaking on the shore as we were seeking through that door had to leave by half past 4 still I yearned to touch you more and more

promise that you'll keep me warm
he said: Yo, I've been loving you so long
Every since that Bone Thugs song
you're too strong

shots of Remy
I'm in love, it's true
damn, I fucks with you
but we muddle through
I'm in love, it's true
