

Marina Kaye, Sounds Like Heaven (ft. Lindsey Stirling)

Standing in the maze, waiting for the wonderful
Losing and erased, defeat makes us vulnerable
I want to find a place we can be comfortable
Standing in the maze, waiting for the wonderful
Losing and erased, defeat makes us vulnerable
I want to find a place we can be comfortable
Wish we could escape, I would know where to go

I can't stop crying, crying, scared and like smiling
Dying dying, don't you know I'm trying
Waiting waiting, for it is an illusion
Say those words, my conclusion

The love that saves me, kills me, just like a weapon
Hold me, know me, show me, you're my blessing
Free this hostage, heart ache
Your possession, say you, when you say you, when you say you love me
Sounds like heaven
Sounds like heaven

Does anything I say or do have this effect on you
I wonder if it did would you treat me like you do

I can't stop crying, crying, scared and like smiling
Dying dying, don't you know I'm trying
Waiting waiting, for it is an illusion
Say those words, my conclusion

The love that saves me, kills me, just like a weapon
Hold me, know me, show me, you're my blessing
Free this hostage, heart ache
Your possession, say you, when you say you, when you say you love me
Sounds like heaven
Sounds like heaven
