

Marissa, 365 Days (ft. EMO piosenka z filmu 365

Only mistake
You gave me 365 days
But nothing could ever make me be next to you
I've tried so hard
But no one's perfect enough
But when you're alone, there's something so sweet about death

'Cause when you're gone, I've lost myself away
And I've never wanted to feel so wrong
When I'm in love with you

I follow your step
I'll never leave you again
'Cause when I'm with you, it feels like home again
I've missed your touch
I want to drown in your eyes
And look at us now, no one is perfect enough

'Cause when you're gone, I've lost myself away
And I've never wanted to feel so wrong
When I'm in love

Your lips like poison
Our hearts so broken
No one believed, we don't care
We've made bad choices
Our souls were frozen
Now we are here once again

And I've never wanted to feel so wrong
When I'm in love with you
