Marjorie Fair, Hold On To You

I hold on to you it's all I can do my love you are stronger than me from what I can see my love

I think I'm going out of my mind If it's not already gone by now sad to see you're already over me I don't want to know that now the pain I see in your eyes is such a surprise my love you can't believe what I see you're the best thing to me my love

I think I'm going out of my mind if it's not already gone by now sad to see you're already over me I don't want to know that now

I hold on to you, it's all I can do
