

Marjorie Fair, Please Don't

Please don't be afraid of all you're made of
and what you are to the one in front of you
you gave yourself to lean upon
but now you're gone

please don't ever say that you have seen that and you know the one in front of you who gave himself to lean upon but now he's gone

and what you
