Mark Knopfler, Long Highway

Heard a bell being toll Before the break of day I heard then my name being called Down that long highway

You don't get long You don't get long You don't get long to stay

Kiss me once and I'll be gone Down that long highway

Spirits call from way beyond Lord I may not disobey Spare a thought for the vagabond Down that long highway Down that long highway Down that long highway