

Mark Ronson, Truth (ft. Alicia Keys, The Last Artful)

swiff
in the burb and the world done change on us

we'll quit
qhat;s a 5 letter word for it ain;t better?
ain;t better, bitch

and what's the boy when he feel like he don't matter?
it don't matter?
cause this a lot of talk
it's all chatter, like

keep on educatin;, meditati;
anything to keep me up
keep on, meditati; activatin
anything to keep me up
if then keep on renovatin', elevatin'
anything to keep me up

how bad do you want it?
this way to the truth?
I put everything on it
this way follow suit
how bad do you want it?
this way to the truth?
I put everything on it
this way follow suit

splish
hope to god
that the wave don't crash on us a ship

throw to side
blown away
sikin' fast on us
ain;t that bitch

and what's the boy when he feel like he don't matter?
it don't matter?
it's all chatter, like

keep on educatin;, meditati;
anything to keep me up
keep on, meditati; activatin
anything to keep me up
if then keep on renovatin', elevatin'
anything to keep me up

how bad do you want it?
this way to the truth?
I put everything on it
this way follow suit
this way to the truth?
I put everything on it
this way follow suit
