

Martha Wainwright, Lolita

When you undress don't close the door
I know you're in there long brown legs curly brown hair the world ends here

I got my eyes on you
I got my eyes on you all of the time

Momma's not home, we're alone let's play house
come over here sit next to me I'll be as quiet as a mouse

I got my eyes on you
I got my eyes on you all of the time

But don't worry
let your blood run free and pay no mind

cause me and Hummy
we understand each other we got the same problem you and Lolita

Hotels no kiss & tells it's been decided there'll be no more fun

I got my eyes on you
