

Martin Garrix, Dreamer (feat. Mike Yung)

I'm a dreamer
Don't tell me not to dream
I got freedom
And that's everything to me
It don't matter
What I've got or where I go I find shelter
A million miles from home it' ain't easy to keep going when it's hard keep shining in the dark but I;m a dreamer so don't tell me not to dream I;m a believer

as long as I got something to believe in
as long as I got something to believe in

as long as I got something to believe in

I am a lover
don't tell me who to love I;m a runner cause I've got somewhere to run I just listen to the voices in my head when they tell me I;m always have something to believe in
