

Mary J. Blige, No Sunshine

Aretha Franklin & Mary J. Blidge - Ain't no Sunshine

Lately I've got this funny feeling
Something don't feel the same
But he's telling me I'm the one to blame

Yes, I know that is it still gives me good lovin but when he's is deep inside there's somebody else on his mind

Don't waste your time
But it's gets so hard to know
Just walk away
You say: That I've gotta let go
She's knows a million times before
You shouldn't dag his step no more
Can't waste my time
Girl is not hard to know
Should walk away
You've gotta let it go
She know a million times before
Shouldn't take a shhhhhh no more

Sister girl, sister girl
Its not deeper then what you thinking oehhh
When something don't feel the same
You better believe his love done changed
And what I've been telling you
And Whatcha you telling me
Coz its been hurting me
Coz she...
He's got a sweety on the side
Stop making truth out of lies.

Don't waste your time
But it's gets so hard to know
Just walk away
You saying that I gotta let go
Seen it a million times before
You shouldn't take his shit no more
Can't waste my time
Girl is not hard to know
Should walk away
You've gotta let it go
She know a million times before
Shouldn't take his shhhhhh no more

Whats the point of loving when you've got no trust
Whats the point of staying when you seen enough
Whats the point of giving when he dont deserve
He don't deserve it

blablabla
