

Massive Attack, The Spoils (ft. Hope Sandoval)

I got that feeling,
That bad feeling that you don't know
I don't even know her
But I hope that she comforts you tonight

Nobody here will keep you in the shade and never owned you
Some sentimental tears or someone else's girl that drips away

But I somehow slowly love you
And wanna keep you the same
Well, I somehow slowly know you
And wanna keep you away
I got that feeling,
That bad feeling that you don't know
I don't even know her
But I hope that she comforts you tonight

And I somehow slowly love you
And wanna keep you this way
Well, I somehow slowly know you
And wanna keep you away, away

And I somehow slowly love you
And wanna keep you this way
Well, I somehow slowly know you
And wanna keep you

But I somehow slowly love you
And wanna keep you the same
Well, I somehow slowly know you
And wanna keep you away
