

Matthew Koma, Dear Ana (ft. Jai Wolf)

I can't keep faking it
A smile real wide with a mouth of diamonds
With a shine it's count a fit
When we're dressed in a white
We're in Halloweens outfits
And obsessed with protecting you

You're trigger with dreams
And price possessions
Whisper out wisher fact in you
Tell you bigger than me on my knees reflection
Praying

Dear Ana, I can't live without you
But it's killing me that keep you alive
And, dear Ana, I'm afraid to out you
I know your secrets and you know mine

And
You have carried me away for too long
You have carried me away now I'm gone
now I'm gone

I know I keep saying it
That tomorrows last time will be las and final
And I keep engraving it
When I clam the progrades I reside the Bible
And obsessed with believing you

Dear Ana, I can't live without you
But it's killing me that keep you alive
And, dear Ana, I'm afraid to out you
I know your secrets and you know mine

And
You have carried me away for too long
You have carried me away now I'm gone
now I'm gone

you're my best friend
you are my weakness
You're my angel
You're my demons
You're my virgin in a black dress
And I'm on my knees again for you

Dear Ana, I can't live without you
But it's killing me that keep you alive
And, dear Ana, I'm afraid to out you
I know your secrets and you know mine

And
You have carried me away for too long
You have carried me away now I'm gone
now I'm gone
