

Melancholy, Blood & Magic

Universe froze in my hands.
Darkness comes out of hell to me.
Magic blood flowing in my veins.
Now I can stop the time for us
I'll be there before your eyes
I'll be there, fly in the sky
I'll be there in front of your face
Inside your soul light, inside your hot heart
...and Blood!
My empire of chaos thoughts.
The forces of the ocean's depths.
Live beside the graves.
From within a faceless entity

I'll be there before your eyes
I'll be there, fly in the sky
I'll be there in front of your face
Inside your soul light, inside your hot heart
...and Blood!
All I know, you know

I'll be there before your eyes
I'll be there, fly in the sky
I'll be there in front of your face
Inside your soul light, inside your hot heart
Inside your soul, you're magic...
