

Metallica, Am I Savage?

Run away, the past will bite again
No matter where you dwell
You here again a captive of the howl
You welcome back to hell

Faithful as the full moon is rising
Beauty and the beast are colliding

Sharpened edge touch liquid flame
Deepened seed soaks anger's reign
Arching back, shape-shift range
Father, how I watched you change?

Am I savage?
Scratching at the door
Am I savage?
I don't recognize you anymore

Tooth is fang, twisting under skin
Foul tongue, black breath
Change, snap inside, the beast about complete
Change soon infects the rest

Faithful, as the full moon is rising
Beauty and the beast are colliding

Sharpened edge touch liquid flame
Deepened seed soaks anger's reign
Arching back, shape-shift range
Father, how I watched you change?

Am I savage?
Scratching at the door
Am I savage?
I don't recognize you anymore
Anymore!

Inheritance - the past has bit again
The next heir of anarchy
Feel stretching skin so far beyond belief
I feel the ever changing, you, in me

Am I savage?
Scratching at the door
Am I savage?
Howling evermore
Am I savage?
I don't recognize you anymore
Anymore, anymore!
Am I savage?
