Metallica, Invisible Kid (Metallica St Anger)

Invisible kid
Never see what he did
Got stuck where he did
Fallen through the grid
Invisible kid
Got a place of his own
Where he'll never be known
Inward he's grown
Invisible kid
Locked away in his brain
From the shame and the pain

World down the drain

Invisible kid

Suspicious of your touch

Don't want no crutch

But it's all too much

I hide inside

I hurt inside

I hide inside, but I'll show you...

I'm OK, just go away Into distance let me fade

I'm OK, just go away

I'm OK, please don't stray too far

Open your heart

I'm beating right here

Open your mind

I'm being right here

Open your heart

I'm beating right here

Open your mind

I'm being right here, right now

Ooh, what a good boy you are

Out of the way you're kept to yourself

Ooh, can't you see that he's not here He doesn't want the attention you give

Ooh, unplugging from it all

Invisible kid floats alone in his room

Ooh, what a quiet boy you are

He looks so calm floating 'round and around in himself
