

Michał Szpak, Rosanna

Why?

Why do I feel so bad without you here?

Please, tell me 'why?'

Why I lost my head when you're not with me

What should I do

I can't forget you

What should I do?

Rosanna I call your name over and over and over again

Rosanna where are you now?

How do I find you?

Please, tell me 'how'

Do you remember, I said you a words,

That I don't ever leave you alone

Rosanna I call your name over and over and over again

Why?

Why do I feel so bad without you here?

Please, tell me 'why?'

Why I'm losing my mind when you are not with me?

What should I do?

I can't forget you!

What should I do?

Rosanna I call your name over and over and over again

Rosanna where are you now?

How do I find you?

Please, tell me 'how'

Do you remember, I said you a words,

That I don't ever leave you alone

Rosanna I call your name over and over and over again
