

MØ, Beautiful Wreck

you hold me in your arms like your red guitar no, no one blame me for my wicked heart

it was in the cards that I would be burning for you it's like a forest fire no way to stop it now we're in too deep lying here right next to me I know love's a losing hand but I want both of those hand on me I don't have to sleep
i'm a beautiful wreck baby and I feel like I've been losing my mind I don't know what you've done to me

I don't want to leave cuz I am falling for you recklessly
and I feel like I've been losing my mind
I don't know what you've done to me
cuz I am falling for you recklessly
and I feel like I've been losing my mind again

alive inside my hands and it's so bizarre it's an old, old, old story there's no harmony, no without the harm and baby I am burning for you

but I want both of those hand on me
I don't have to sleep

I don't know what you've done to me
cuz I am falling for you recklessly
and I feel like I've been losing my mind
I don't know what you've done to me
cuz I am falling for you recklessly
and I feel like I've been losing my mind again
