

Mobb Deep, Where Your Heart At

(PRODIGY AND HAVOC TALKING)

That the Way thun...

...My man...Gotta keep your mouth tight ...

(PRODIGY)

Hey yo its hell on earth down here the pavement scorching Its more on roc when the Mobb walks in shit gets hot like a ill potty grill spilled on you Spit fire with nines but never squealed on you

I understood you should try to take my life
If I was you I would too damn right
If I had drama with a nigga like such as myself
I couldn't even sleep at night until...
I made things right
Pull out guns exchange a fight
Be the first to let off mines ignite the pipes... and never let the daylight decieve
during the suns' hours niggaz do bleed
Aim for the waist and something on the top gets shot Niggaz can't shoot never made a thing drop
Keep cream of the crop
fresh out of box shit filled to the top
Smell the barrell when its bolt-locked nigga

Hook1

Have you ever lost a loved one?
Or never understood love 'til you lost one?
Where your heart at?
I left mines behind with my dearly departed
Where your heart at? Strength missing
To take losses is the hardest
The ones that overcome be the calmest
Strive regardless. Where your heart at? Brave-hearted.
Now lets find out where niggaz hearts' at

This is to my physical you gone...to me you still here
I be buggin thinking how you doin' up there
Probably watching over me calling out my fouls
Fk with mad chicks but I take care of my child
I miss that ass tell God I said pardon me
If Your real; He'll forgive me (no doubt)
But I ain't crying no more about how you're gone Used to hold me down niggaz front its on Ain't wetting going to jail you better shoot me
Just lost my heart-If I die you comin' wit' me quickly while I'm pissy they're just bitches thats' a little to frisky

risky on point hope these cats is getting the point whisper out my name
Stand but please don't point call me paranoid
But I'm on point close by the stash joint Got you in my mind
I guess thats why the say love is blind

Hook 2

Strength missing we take losses. be the hardest
The ones that overcome be the calmest. Strive regardless Where your heart at? Brave-hearted.
You better finish what you started (dunn)
If you ever lost a loved one?
You'll never understand love 'til you lost one.
Where your heart at?
I left mines behind with my dearly departed

Where your heart at? Strength missing
To take losses be the hardest
The ones that overcome be the calmest
Strive regardless. Where your heart at? Brave-hearted.
Now lets find out where niggaz hearts' at

Have you ever lost a loved one?
You'll never understand love 'til you lost one.
Where your heart at?
I left mines' behind wit' my dealy departed
Now where your heart at?

(PRODIGY)

I find myself dozing off with it (guns)
waking up every forty minutes (dun)
Soaking wet dripped to death in it
On top of rules big barells and tools get tested
And hittin off makes my dick get erected
We all strive for a better tommorow
But as far as today your ass gotsa' pay
And ain't no time better than the present one at hand
And never keep your shit too far from your hand

(HAVOC)

Think about this are you with your hands on who you running with Some timers, Playa' hata's and dick riders
Bent niggaz' that be crashin into dividers
Gettin you into shit got that ass hud up
Got them la'd up got you comin out of your vault
With no plans of giving back live in serious debt.
Your lady fking other niggaz you a fool for her
Talking 'bout you got money you just using her Actually loosin' her...
