Muse, Instant Messenger (Pink Ego Box)

It's gonna be ok Can't afford another day At 50 bytes per second I've never seen your face I've never heard your voice But I think I like it When you instant message me With a promise I can feel it I can tell you're gonna be Just like me My eyes are gonna strain My heart is feeling pain At 50 beats per second I've never seen your eyes I've never heard your lies But I think I like it When you instant message me With a promise I can feel it I can tell you're gonna be Just like me Just like me You turn You turn You turn on me
