

Mustard Plug, In Your Face throw it right back in your face this aint the other time this aint the other place persistence aint no saving grace cuz you know better than to try me looking back

i let it happen
looking back
i let you in
looking back
im looking forward and i wont let it happen, not again not gonna wait til im dead to realize what i had to drown in my regret the time is now and life is short im swallowing my pride for the last time right now it seems so clear to me we spent our time in purgatory and now it seems so clear to me we're coming back we're twice as strong not gonna let it happen been looking way to long to long and now
not gonna happen not again
