

Mykki Blanco, Family Ties (ft. Michael Stipe)

I heard about your father
I heard he wasn't doing so well
Surprised you even bothered
He's always gotta story to tell
Let's not play the victim
Stick it to me oh so good
It's fiction like a sitcom
You've tried everything I know you could

Cause I hate to see you so low
I hate to see you all fucked up
I hate to see you so numb
These family ties tend to suck
Cause I hate to see you so low
I hate to see you all fucked up
I hate to see you so numb
These family ties tend to suck

Now all you see is problems
You complain enough it just gets old
To think you won't resolve them
I know you tried to let things go
I'm here to fix everything, try to save everything
Keep it up don't ever fold
I don't wanna break
But I don't wanna fake it's important to me that you know

Cause I hate to see you so low
I hate to see you all fucked up
I hate to see you so numb
These family ties tend to suck
Cause I hate to see you so low
I hate to see you all fucked up
I hate to see you so numb
These family ties tend to suck

Cause I hate to see you so low
I hate to see you all fucked up
I hate to see you so numb
These family ties tend to suck
Cause I hate to see you so low
I hate to see you all fucked up
I hate to see you so numb
These family ties tend to suck
