

N.E.R.D., Lifting You (No One Ever Really Dies) &

I know you heard this before
it's working for sure gonna be hurting tomorrow

but tonight hey hey
we're going for it
tonight, we're going for it

here me out

we've come to have a good time and we won't compromise we wanna hear the fellas we wanna feel the light automatic wine
my money stacked so high it feels light stick like time take the smallest slice it still touch the sky

tonight we're going turbo then dance all us back rto the curb yo we're gonna eat a lot of merlot but yhe question is where jazz go?

Fighting over straws like they were oil filled pipes why's the sun writing the song? why is this funny to me all of a sudden, a mouse come along and what he sings
it brings harmony
