

Nana Mouskouri, Unite

Unite

Two lovers meet
It's like an endless page
Filling out a story
Making it complete

Unite

A lover's call
We heard that sound before
When you hear me calling
We'll find each other

And now we're going to stand
A union till the end
Our love is not a masquerade
I want the world to see
True love has meant to be
I know that we should never be
Afraid

Unite

It's just a word
But what it means to you
When someone's calling out

Unite

What lovers say
In nights they celebrate
With each new elation
They find each other

And now we're going to stand
A union 'till the end
Our love is not masquerade
I want the world to see
True love has meant to be
I know that we should never go
That we should never know
That we should never be
Afraid
