

Nasri, Na na na na

Yeah, sometimes you so in love but you cant find the right words to say So say this.

na nanana nana nanana na nananana

See my girls been number one since the day that we met

And I just couldn't resist the way she walked in that dress

So now, I'm committed

She was feeling me

Guess she likes the way i wear my white tee

I miss her when shes not around, (oh)

So see if i touch her she gon' break it down

Know it for sure,

I'm gon' get it, she gon' feel it

Coz she looks so sexy in my jersey

(and if you ever ever felt this way) know that its hard

(when its hard to find the words to say) thinking of you makes every word run away

I look at my boo and say na na nanana

If you're in love with your man, than you gotta do all you can for sure

So that he never has a reason to go, help me sing na nanana nananana na nanana

And if you'll never leave your girl coz you really know that shes your world

And if she up and left you, you don't know what you gon' do help me sing

na nanana nanananana na nanana

(if you're in love)

Ohhh, any time she needs me I'm there, without a second to spare

No reason why she shouldnt [?] my name

You fulfill it, so I'm gon' get at her

You deserve it baby be my wifey

(and if you ever ever felt this way) I know that its hard

(when its hard to find the words to say)yeah, when the words you cant find, girl at the drop of a dim
