

Nazareth, Part Of The Scenery

Countdown's starting, now the goin's gettin' rough
I give you my lovin' but I guess it ain't enough
Once upon a time you were proud I was your man
Now your low on affection and I get it when I can
When your friends all visit and they see me comin' through
There's a voice from the crowd sayin' "who the hell are you? ? i'm just a part of the scenery"
A thorn in your rose, kinda spoilin' the view
I'm part of the scenery. whatcha gonna do about me?

Wanna be strong, try to put you in your place
I show a little love, get the sand in my face
I try to get up, always something goin' down
Caught in the middle of your merry go round

The wise men say I should leave well alone
But the same wise men just call when you are home
I'm just a part of the scenery here with you
A thorn in your rose, kinda spoilin' the view
I'm part of the scenery. whatcha gonna do about me?
