Neil Young, Carmichael

Silk scarf and a napkin Hidden in a drawer Two hundred bucks in an envelope Labeled Lenore

"Maybe she shouldn't see this She should never know," Said the widow's best friend Anne, "I'll just take it and go

I'll give her the money later Say it was in his shoe That way she'll never find out... That'll do"

"Carmichael was a credit to the force In everything he did It's like we got a big hole in our side Where he fit

If any of you officers Would like to say a word Now would be the time To be heard"

"Thank you chief, I sure would He was a partner of mine He was always very careful And played it straight down the line"

One by one the officers spoke And the service drew to a close He had no living relatives But his wife who never showed

She just couldn't face the men They all understood They got in their cars and drove home As directly as they could

"Carmichael you asshole," The new widow sobbed beneath her veil, "shot down in the line of duty Is this how justice never fails?

I wish that things were better When we said goodbye today But we had our share of good times though Along the way

Remember
'Hey mr. las vegas
You used to be so cool!'
We met Wayne Newton down at pebble beach
And you acted like a fool

But we both just couldn't stop laughin' It seemed so funny to us We left our luggage back in the room and almost missed the bus

That was a great vacation Maybe the best of all But goddamnit Carmichael you're dead now And I'm talkin' to the wall" The force got back to normal Carmichael was replaced For one year nobody parked a car In Carmichael's space
