NF, PAID MY DUES

clicks /3x
they'll do anything to get a few tick /3c
that's the sound before my head explode
quit /3x
look at you up on your pedistals
quit /3x
hear the critics come
it's time to go!

i read your article it kinda hurt me i don't know who hired you or what your friends say in your circle but the fact that you released it tells me two things are for certain they get paid for trashin' people i get paid cause i stay workin'

drop the search on they emerge up out of nowhere to the surface just to peak behind the curtain throwing salt at all my burdens I am aware I shouldn't give this my attention lifes a journey I should just stay on my payh and learn to laugh you think they heard me?

ears are burning
put em out
quiet /2x
look around
why don't they find someone way more interesting to write about?
plus we're kinda boring aren't we?
all we do is whine and pout it's confusing
so amusing how I argue whit myself
