

NF, When I Grow Up

when i grow up do you know what I want to be take a seat let me tell you my ridiculous dreams I want to rap
I know it's hard to believe and I can tell you're already thinking I will never succeed but I am ok. with it I admit the lurics a week I've been working I'll be good eventually

I understand you got to crawl before you get to your feet bur I've been running a whi;e they ain't ready for me I know this prolyl really isn't realistic and honestly I might never make a difference but that don't make a difference I 'ma have to risk it i see the odds ain't ... for me I can't lie to it's kinda how I like it to be the underdog

I just wanna to pay my bills rapping about the way I feel I just wanna to make a couple mil leave to the fam and the will ui just want to sign a record deal maybe buy a house up in the hills might not be the best of my feel but I guarantee that I'ma die real when I grow up
when I grow up
