[Verse 1:]

What you need thick thighs and some chinky eyes?

Super size all your sides like your biggie fries.

For a better prize you can get some better pie

Strawberry, apple, cherry even lemon lime.

What you want them B cups or them C cups?

For your ice cream, chocolate or butter P cups?

French vanilla threesomes that come in D cups

They eat each other but otherwise they don't eat much.

I'm bout that fast money, money ain't got no patience.

But if them boys come run like you on probation

Listen up, I'm a send ya to the location

Write it down, take a picture, make a notation.

[Chorus]

[Verse 2:]

Relax lil nigga cut the bull (cut it out)

We tax niggas no deductible (get it out)

So what it is? What it ain't? Nigga state ya name.

You know we got them umbrellas if ya make it rain.

So what you want them good girls or them bad ones?

I got them girls make ya wish ya never had none.

Cause you'll be spending beaucoup in my spot shawty.

This nigga acting brand new like he just bout it.

Up and away like Mighty Mouse

You can say I am the rap game Heidi Fleiss

Cause my flow crazy, Hussein like Saddam

You getting it? I got 'em, I'm the rap bitch madam,

[Chorus]
