

Nicki Minaj, Sorry (Ft. Nas)

hey baby
even though you break my heart I still love you

is all that you can say
years gone by and still
words don't come easily
like forgive me
forgive me

and you can say, baby
baby
my baby, can I hold you tonight?
and maybe if I told you to right words uuu, at the right time
you be nas

ayo
that bitch is always flippin' you niggas never listen we make a perfect team balling Jordan and scotty Pippin but I'ma let you dip in that wax sauce drippin' said that when you with a boss bitch now you can tell the difference you be like jungle digger I don't want another nigga I wanna make ou about a legend but I make you bigger think about peter Pan no bitches badder than me when I pull up got them screaming like temper tan Ayo DJ, drop the beat my gun didn't fall bit I drop ythe heat I love how we kept in on the low mad discrete
I'm in a rush
pass me the keys to my jeep truck

I hit them with it I'mma kill them with the wine, wine ain't losing watches but with me je always find time we keep it classy when we eating it's that fine dime
but between love and hate, baby, it's a fine line

sorry

a mack
I used to mack with the mac on me project parties, lights off, mad horny duty wine and feel the gun I'm hiding she still grinding on me smiling at me

I'm like "HO, I'm nasty!
god bell ya, met ya
thought you were sexy as ever flexing with your ex
I couldn't disrespect ya later on, I undress ya couldn't wait to sex ya made a nigga wait so long but it was special light travel faster than sound lightning strike one second ever point 2 miles so when you first saw me emerge from weed cloud electricity touch your soul that's how I get down
gangsta love completing each other touching tongues so close we could breath for each other untouchable boy with the illustrious girl but maybe being together's too much for the world?
