

Night Beds, Ramona

Come on Ramona
It's getting hotter
Hidden and guarded
I know you feel so alone

Come on Ramona
You give me nothing
Bringing me something
I know you feel so alone

With a heart that always fails
My love's gone off all the rails
Like a ship without a sail
Sinking underneath the wave

Come on Ramona
Church bells are ringing
Everyone's singing
Why do we feel so alone?
Alone

Come on Ramona
Make it your mantra
Fuck what they taught you
Take back the life that they stole

With a heart that always fails
My love's gone off all the rails
Like a ship without a sail
Drowning underneath the wave

With a heart that always fail
My love's gone off all the rails
I know that the planets have a way
To lead us back to fate and never
Never/4x
Sever
Dreams all my

When you're gone all
The dreams in my darkness
Are your choice
When they just finally started

When you're gone all
The dreams in my darkness
Are your choice
When they just finally started

When you're gone all
The dreams in my darkness
Are your choice
When they just finally started
