

No One, Down On Me

Is all of this talk about me
The anger aimed at me
Keep prying to get in my head
Push till my brain is dead

Everything is coming down on me
Everyone has waited long to see
Lack of control eats
Pressing you, testing you

Careful don't push me
Over the boundaries

It's coming, down on me
The faces starring at me
It's coming, down on me
The pressure talking to me

Will I ever find my way out
The time is running down
I'm beginning to lose my patience
Snap at my own defense

I can feel the tension when I breathe
I can feel the rage hostility

Pouring my worn soul out!
Shouting out! screaming out!

Now that you've
Pushed me over the boundaries...
