

Norah Jones, Everybody Needs A Best Friend

My words are lazy, my thoughts are hazy
But this is one thing I'm sure of.
Everybody needs a best friend!
I'm happy I'm yours!
You got a double,
Who brings you trouble,
And though you're better without me.
Everybody needs a best friend!
I'm happy I'm yours!

A fool could see decidedly,
That you're a ten and
I'm a three.
A royal brie is what you need,
So how did you come to be stuck with a bumme like me?
Oh you got a head full of dreadful
And yet lest that someone adores you
Everybody needs a best friend,
I'm happy I'm yours!

A fool could see decidedly
That you're a ten and
I'm a three.
A royal brie is what you need
So how did you come to be stuck with a bumme like me?

Oh you got a head full of dreadful
And yet lest that someone adores you.
Everybody needs a best friend,
I'm happy I'm yours!
I'm just a clown, and
I'll bring you down
But you don't care 'cause
Your best friend is me!!
