

Not Like Them (NLT), Karma

Ah

Ooh, ooh, ooh

Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh

Ah

Ooh, ooh, ooh

Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh

[Verse 1 - Kevin]

It's a shame

You see that I'm hurtin'

And you don't know what you did

You probably don't even care to know what it is

You promised that you'd be down

That you were my best friend

Was it all for nothin'

How could you go

Right when I needed you

You never showed

The love that I'm always showin' to you

Now you know that I'm gonna leave you

You're tellin' me no

Cause it's gonna hurt you

Feelin' so cold

[Chorus]

I wanted to know you

But karma's a trip now

You probably shouldn't have let me standin' alone

I wanted to love you

But karma's a trip now

You probably should turn around

And take yourself home

Karma, karma

It's just karma, karma

It's just karma, karma

It's just karma's a trip

[Verse 2 - Travis]

You're the flame

I keep runnin' back to you (back to you)

Feel the pain

I keep runnin' to you

Thinkin' something's gonna change

But now that the story is over

I'm turnin' the page

Baby your history

How could you go

Right when I needed you

You never showed

The love that I'm always showin' to you

Now you know that I'm gonna leave you

You're tellin' me no

Cause it's gonna hurt you

Feelin' so cold

[Chorus]

I wanted to know you

But karma's a trip now

You probably shouldn't have let me standin' alone

I wanted to love you

But karma's a trip now

You probably should turn around

And take yourself home

Karma, karma

It's just karma, karma

It's just karma, karma

It's just karma's a trip

[Bridge]

What goes around comes around
(No, no)
Me and you
Me and you (and you)
The tables have turned around
And now
I'm lettin' you go
(No, go)
[Chorus]
I wanted to know you
But karma's a trip now
You probably shouldn't have let me standin' alone
I wanted to love you
But kamra's a trip now
You probably should turn around
And take yourself home
[Chorus]
I wanted to know you
But karma's a trip now
You probably shouldn't have let me standin' alone
I wanted to love you
But kamra's a trip now
You probably should turn around
And take yourself home
Karma, karma
It's just karma, karma
It's just karma, karma
It's just karma's a trip
