OneRepublic, Ordinary Human

Today I felt a switch in my vein Today I felt a switch in my vein Used to be a shadow Now a shadow scream my name And in the daylight I could swear We're the same But I'm just an ordinary human (Ordinary ways) I'm just an ordinary human But I don't feel so ordinary today I'm just a picture perfect nothing Sometimes I medicate I'll be a picture perfect human Before the sun goes down today

Today I felt a switch in my vein Today I made them all afraid Used to be a shadow Now a shadow scream my name And in the daylight I could swear We're the same But I'm just an ordinary human (Ordinary ways) I'm just an ordinary human But I don't feel so ordinary today I'm just a picture perfect nothing Sometimes I medicate I'll be a picture perfect human Before the sun goes down today

Just an ordinary human But I don't feel so typical today

There'll be peace in the city tonight Peace in the city tonight But when I'm gone I hope they get it right There'll be peace in the city tonight Peace in the city tonight For when I'm gone I hope they get it right

Just an ordinary human (Ordinary ways) I'm ordinary human I don't feel so ordinary today

But when I'm gone I hope they get it right
