

Orden Ogan, Come With Me To The Other Side (

Come with me to the other side,
Leave the pain of this world behind,
For whatever you will decide,
You're wrong,
I'll be your bonfire,

Come with me to the other side,
Leave the pain of this world behind,
For whatever you will decide,
You're wrong,

I can see my grin in the reflection of the blade,
And feel confidence and joy cause the decision now is made,
The steel is cold and bring a stream over my skin,
Open up this empty shell and free the icebound soul within,

Why don't you,
Come with me to the other side,
Leave the pain of this world behind,
For whatever you will decide,
You're wrong,

Come with me,
I will guide the way,
Your whole life,
Led to this day,

Come with me,
Let me be your light,
Just you and me and the eternal night,

Why don't you,
Come with me to the other side,
Leave the pain of this world behind,
For whatever you will decide,
You're wrong,
I'll be your bonfire,

Come with me to the other side,
Leave the pain of this world behind,
In the darkness I'll be your light,
I'll be your bonfire,

Come with me to the other side,
Leave the pain of this world behind,
For whatever you will decide,
You're wrong,

Come with me to the other side,
Leave the pain of this world behind,
In the darkness I'll be your light,
You'll find me in the night,
Just follow the light,
I'll be your bonfire.
