

Our Lady Peace, Where are you

Hey you,
Have you felt like this before?
You got style,
But 'aint got soul.
Are you happy now?
Are you happy?
Tonight,
Did punk rock get it right?
Is there no future in sight?
Oh,
Is it different now?
Is it different?
Come on,
Come on, come on, come on.
Where are you?
Where are you?
I'm kicking and screaming,
You're not listening.
Where are you?
Where are you?
Everything I believed in,
Has lied to me.
This could be the best day of my life.
The best day of my life.
Hey you,
Have you got everything you want?
Or do you want more than you got?
Is it different now,
Is it different?
Tonight,
Did Jesus get it right?
Or is the Devil behind the light?
Are you happy now?
Are you happy?
Come on,
Come on, come on, come on.
Where are you?
Where are you?
I'm kicking and screaming,
You're not listening.
Where are you?
Where are you?
Everything I believed in,
Has lied to me.
This could be the best day of my life.
Sons and Daughters,
Mothers and Fathers.
Everyone's waiting for our luck to change.
Sons and Daughters,
Mothers and Fathers.
Everyone's waiting...waiting...
'Cause this could be the best day,
And this could be the best day,
And this could be the best day, best day, best day.
Come on,
Come on, come on, come on.
Where are you?
Where are you?
I'm kicking and screaming,
You're not listening.
Where are you?
Where are you?
Everything I believed in,
Has lied to me.

This could be the best day,
This could be the best day,
This could be the best day, best day, best day.
This could be the best day,
This could be the best day,
This could be the best day, best day, best day,
Of your life.
