

Outlandish, Wherever

Where ever it goes

Where ever I go

Where ever we go

Where ever I go

Where ever it goes

Where ever we go

To whom it may concern I think I lost someone

I think I heard my mother cry I think I left someone

Think I saw myself commit homicide kill someone

The sweetest thing you have ever seen I think I hurt someone

I am running on a cloudy day

With a mind state far from ok nowhere to stay

And none to pray for me five times a day

Did I mention that I was brought up to the sky

To clarify I was put on a high to represent my body to the fullest still I am rowdy

Though not blessed with the same earthly riches like the Saudi I got spirit so they are bounty hunting

No mercy shown its a conspiracy all over me wont leave me alone

By the look in your eyes

I can tell you gonna cry

Is it over me

If it is save your tears cause Im not worth it youll see

For Im the type of boy who is always on the run

Where ever I lay my hat thats my home

Im telling you thats my home

Where ever it goes

Where ever I go

Where ever we go

Thats my home

Where ever I go

Where ever it goes

Where ever we go

Im telling you thats my home

Donde quiera que me encuentre

Donde quiera que yo vaya

Ese es mi hogar esa es mi casa

Soy como una pluma

Que es llevada por el viento

Libre como el aire, sin fronteras

Soy como el universo

Pirata sin modales

dueo de tus mares

tu amor yo me he robado

y sola has quedado

no soy digno de tus lagrimas

no llores tus dolores me los llevo

estas en mis recuerdos

no me justifico

y te pido mil disculpas

si pudiera cambiaria

pero esta es mi conducta

si algn da yo me asent&#oacute;

seria a tu lado dormira sosegado en tus brazos por ahora te digo adi&#oacute;s algn da nos veremos

no guardes el rencor y si los bellos besos porque a veces la vida es loca (loca loca)

a veces ganas unas

a veces pierdes otras

(Translated)

Wherever I find myself

Where ever I go

Thats my house

Thats my home

Im like a feather

Conducted by the wind

Free like air
Without borders
Like the universe
A pirate without manners
Proprietor of your seas
I have stolen your love
And now lonely, there you are Im not worthy of your tears
Dont cry, Im taking your pain away
Youll be in my memory
I cant justify my self
I apologize a thousand times
If I could change I would
But this is my way of being
If one day I settle
It would be by your side, Ill sleep peacefully in your arms
But for now I say goodbye, someday well see each other Dont keep the rancour, only our beautiful kisses
Cuz sometimes life is crazy Sometimes you win some Sometimes you loose some.
Where ever it goes
Where ever I go
Where ever we go
Thats my home
Where ever I go
Where ever it goes
Where ever we go
Im telling you thats my home
Never ever really sow me coming Never ever really heard me knocking Could it be that you were busy working Thinking about him and forgetting about me You got to be, (got to be) down with me (down with me) Coz only then Ill be (then Ill be) down for real(down for real)
where ever I lay my hat thats my home
Where ever it go
Where ever I goes
Where ever we go
Thats my home
Where ever I go
Where ever it goes
Where ever we go
