Overkill, I Am Fear

You point that little finger out You got four pointing back at you It goes evrywhere you go Does evrything you do

he got roughed up on the inside Screaming that this ain't fair

And in a block?? moment alone on the outside

Thought that no one cared

You want me, you need me, you have me,I'm yours

So he puts in a call to his only friend

He dials 1-800-FEAR

Then he hid his face inside his hands

You know he wasn't very clear

Said I'm roughed uo on the inside

You know that this ain't lair

And in a new york minute, he felt like a million

Cause he knew somebody cared and said

I have but anation in me for evryone to see

I am but a tribute to mediocrisy

I'm your mother,father,son

I'm a little bit of evryone

Hide in the shadow cast by the sun

In constant misery, I'm fear

You want me, youneed me, you have me, I'm yours

Yes I know you've always loved me

Call me now, between the tears

I know you put no one above me

Call me now, between the tears

I'm fear

Call me now uncover me

Watch me work.it's what I do

call me now uncover me

Watch me work, and watch what I undo

So he broken-up all his fingers

White pulling out his fair

And he broke into a million pieces

No, nobody cared

He was beat-up on the inside

Fighting 'to survive

Spent a long time dyin' no not for tryin'

When you want to feel alive

Seem like total kaos everywhere you burn

When you're wiped out on the inside

You can't catch your breath

And in a black out moment

Alone on the outside, beat him right to dead
