Ozzy Osbourne, Fool Like You

(Daisley - Osbourne - Williams)

I hear you breathing though you're so far away Can you just go where you're going to? I couldn't give a damn or two about a fool like you That's true

Are you just too cool? No, you're just perfectly cold And what goes 'round still comes around I think it's all summed up and down in a fool like you That's true

Today is just another day You hold your ticket into nowhere It's up to you if you'll stay And turn your day into a nightmare

You think you know it, you think you know it all But you don't even have a clue And control is still in view for a fool like you That's true

Is there a reason for the way that you are Or does it just come naturally? To have an idiosyncrasy and be a fool like you That's true

You're hearing what you want to hear Misunderstanding all you see An attitude in all of us Is it really you and me

He's hiding, residing deep within the crowd A hand out, he'll pull you down

You've been found guilty, committed every crime But still they say you must go free Looks like haunted I will be by a fool like you That's true

By a fool like you, by a fool like you Looks like haunted I will be by a fool like you That's true By a fool like you, by a fool like you Looks like haunted I will be by a fool like you That's true
