PALAYE ROYALE, World Ends

Got trust issues, not hard to tell
Everyone knows I hate myself
Its true, its true
So I hang myself with your belt from a ceiling fan that's strong as hell
As hell
Will my fucking heart beat again
Can feel the warmth leave my hands
Can you see my eyes roll back in my head
Just pretend you love me until my world ends
Till my world ends
until it world ends (x)
Cause you broke my soul and left a shell
A hollow man with no sense of self
Gave you my love without a doubt and you ate my heart and shit it out
So just think of me every once in a while
Will my fucking heart beat again
Can feel the warmth leave my hands
Can you see my eyes roll back in my head
Just pretend you love me until my world ends
Till my world ends
until it world ends (x)
Can you be there for me in the end
If you don't love me just pretend
Can you be there for me in the end
If you dont love me just pretend
Until my world ends (x6)
