

Pale Divine, My Addiction

You are my addiction
My pleasure and my pain
You're my infection
Disease you burn my vein
My fate is frozen, it's a destiny you fix
You are my addiction, my reason to exist
I thought I saw you leaning fashionably against the bar
Your face, your, your face is everywhere I look, you know
Your scent, your touch, your voice
You haunt my nervous system with your soul
It's a fact, you're everywhere I ever will be
I got mirrors on my eyelids
To help me see inside my soul
(You're my addiction)
You're my addiction
You built the walls of chaos in my soul
So warm within you, without you I'm so cold
But I can't even drink you off my mind
Love must be dumb as well as blind
You are my addiction
My pleasure and my pain
You're my infection
Disease you burn my vein
My fate is frozen, it's a destiny you fix
I know you're my addiction
You're the way I get my fix
You're my addiction
(You're my addiction)
You're my, you're my addiction
(You're my addiction)
Oh, you're my vice
(You're my addiction)
You're my, you're my addiction
(You're my addiction)
Give it, give it, give it, give it to me
(You're my addiction)
