

Park, Scene 14

14 good-byes keeps the night alive exit standing the music's ending from on and on a storyboard sending sings in key asleep I'm watching from that window Come up from the ground I need to notice that your not still around 14 sad tries every other night it leaves demanding takes me off my feet throwing away the best day in our heads and if I could just think I remember you and me at 3rd street drinking over coffee bout the people we met the lives that we met and somehow that they changed and we've changed
