

Paula i Karol, Someday

Piece by piece I'm letting go
Piece by piece it's harder
And I'm getting further (smarter*) everyday

Piece by piece I'm letting go
Piece by piece it's harder
And I'm getting further everyday

Everyday they fade away
Things that used to matter
Slowly getting further everyday

Someday, someday, someday
We will know
We will all find out
What it's about

(And) Some say, some say, some say
'Let it go
Let it all run out
Just let it out'

Piece by piece I'm letting go
Piece by piece it's harder
But I'm getting smarter everyday

(And) Every step along the way
Each by each is lighter
And it's getting (Slowly getting*) brighter everyday

(And) Someday, someday, someday
We will know
We will all find out
What it's about

And some say, some say, some say
'Let it go
Let it all run out
Just let it out'

(One more time... alright*)

Someday, someday, someday
We will know
We will all find out
What it's about

(And) Some say, some say, some say
'Let it go
Let it all run out
Just let it out'

I don't know when I've been told
Someone showed me (told me*) this way
As the only (Was the only*) way to go

And I don't mind if you might say
'I need your help on my way'
It's the only way we'll go

(Well, last time, people*)

(And) Someday, someday, someday
We will know

We will all find out
What it's about
