Paulina Rubio, Undeniable

In your brightly painted room
There's a trace of my perfume
And even though the lights are all on
It's always hard cos right before dawn
Still it wasn't hard to see
The something missing there is me
And now it's undeniable
There's nothing so reliable

True, we're through Pretending there's no two of us It's undeniable Simply undeniable Oooh True, that you

Can just go on without me now It's undeniable Simply undeniable

Oooh, True

Oooh

Like a black and white cartoon
I've been walking on the moon
And someone else is pulling the strings
Without you I'm missing, hurting, everything
And now I know I can't survive
Without you baby by my side
It's simply undeniable
There's nothing unreliable

Onnh

True, we're through
Pretending there's no two of us
It's undeniable
Simply undeniable
Oooh
True, that you
Can just go on without me now
It's undeniable
Simply undeniable
Oooh, True

It's undeniable There's nothing so reliable To me and you

It's simply undeniable It's undeniable Me and you

It's undeniable Me and you
