

Paulla, Hold My Love

I want you to hold my love
I feel like i am losing you
Out of my mind
And i wanna you to come here and save me
Until it breaks me again
breaks me again

feeling like my time is wasted
all in on your side
i am waiting wondering and searching there's no one to blame
i am running
and faded
i am losing this game
i am good at faking smiles
it saves me
good at lullebys
i am dancing
feels like it's over
and goes to the end
maybe we start once again?

I want you to hold my love
I feel like i am losing you
Out of my mind
And i wanna you to come here and save me
Until it breaks me again
breaks me again
I want you to hold my love
I feel like i am losing you
Out of my mind
And i wanna you to come here and save me
Until it breaks me again
breaks me again

Losing all my shine
And maybe you'll give me the light
And mercy
Looking for answers
There's only one way
I am feeling like drawing
You drive me insane
Chasing every night
And face it
Making sacrifice
It changed me
feels like it's over
and goes to the end
maybe we start it again?

I want you to hold my love
Out of my mind
And i wanna you to come here and save me
I want you to hold my love
Out of my mind
And i wanna you to come here and save me
