

Pearl Jam, Scared Of Fear

Pearl Jam prezentuje utwór "Scared Of Fear" z płyty "Dark Matter" (premiera 19 kwietnia 2024 r.).

Did I say something wrong?
Did I walk out of step?
To you do I still belong?
Do I have to be scared?
Oh, I'm not saying I know
It's all feeling unclear
We all like control
I surrender to you, dear

You're hurting yourself, it's plain to see
I think you're hurting yourself just to hurt me
We used to laugh, we used to sing
We used to dance, we had our own scene
Hurting yourself, it's plain to see
I think you're hurting yourself 'cause you hurt me
We used to laugh, we used to sing
We used to dance, we used to believe

There's something I should have known?
Was I acting too proud?
Oh, in my weakness, did I somehow get too loud?
Oh, can I get you alone?
Let me fall at your feet
Why must I be compelled to admit defeat?

You're hurting yourself, it's plain to see
I think you're hurting yourself just to hurt me
We used to laugh, we used to sing
We used to dance, we were our own scene
Hurting yourself, nothing to tell
Your secret is well and safe with me
We used to laugh, we used to sing
We used to crash, we used to believe

Hear the voices calling
Hear the voices calling
All around my head
All around my head
Hear the voices calling
Oh, again they're calling
All around my head
Have I lost my friend?
Is this what we've become?
One last setting sun
I'll give, but I can't give up
I'll live, not long enough
To stop these voices calling
Stop the voices calling
All around my head
As if you never left

You're hurting yourself, it's plain to see
I think you're hurting yourself just to hurt me
We used to laugh, we used to sing
We used to dance, we had our own scene
Hurting yourself, it's plain to see
I think you're hurting yourself 'cause you hurt me
We used to laugh, we used to drink
We used to dance, we used to believe
