

Pennywise, Brag, Exaggerate & Lie

I don't believe in
You or what you say
The lies you're
Telling me are so insane
It's time for you
To stop and quit it all today
So sick of watching you brag exaggerate and lie
You're telling lies
I don't believe a thing you say
Exaggerate - you know it
Never was that way
You're bragging now the Truth is dead and bound
It's just your way you
Brag, exaggerate and lie
Just like a smoke screen the truth is Hidden in between
The tales that you
Weave are ill conceived
Spare me the small details your Stories shot to hell
Down in a ball of flames you
Brag, exaggerate and lie
