When you dance with me we dance forever All night long to your favourite

Hit music on the radio Hit music on the radio

When you dance with me we dance forever All night long to the latest song Live a lie, dance together All night long to your favourite

Hit music Hit music

I've been working hard all day
To pay the bills I have to pay
Don't have the strength to work all night
Or fight until it's almost light

Music on the radio D-dance music at the day disco

Live a lie dance together All night long to your favourite song Live and die, it's all that we know I need a friend at the journey's end

Hit music, in stereo

It's all about love, and it's about forgetting Choose a song when the night's too long We all need love and we want protection I need a friend at the journey's end In Kensington, or Spanish Harlem All night long to your desperate
